NoD LEADERSHIP about ADL

Major General Roald Østergaard Head of

Innovation, Network Capabilities and Information Infrastructure

“ADL is a key factor in establishing knowledge about;
and conducting training regarding Network Centric Capabilities (NCC)”

“The goal is to use ADL to establish, develop and maintain NCC skills and knowledge”

... as an important support function, when it comes to emerging training during operations”

... based with the signing of Memorandum of

Intent to Cooperate between Norway and United States last year, it will help furthering cooperation in this area of education and learning to a new level.

NoD Strategic plan for development of NCC capability to be signed by Chief of Defence
